ON Spotlight

Joscelin Dent-Pooley left Adams to study Music at Cambridge and in April 2020 he released his first album, Winterreise. This led to an approach from the film director Yorgos Lanthimoto to write the score for his film "Poor Things". Joscelin, who composes under the name Jerskin Fendix, was nominated for a Golden Globe for this project.

Occupational Therapist

Occupational therapists provide practical support to help people overcome barriers caused by illness, trauma, disability, ageing or accidents that are preventing them from having an independent life.

As an occupational therapist, you'll empower people to carry out everyday tasks or occupations with more confidence and independence in order to improve their health, quality of life and wellbeing. Tasks often relate to self-care, work or leisure.

You will work with people of all ages from babies through to the elderly and will discover you can make a tangible difference to the quality of your patients' lives.
