Spring 2026 Issue 3

This session is for parents of pupils who have expressed an interest in joining the Army. The recorded session gives parents a clear insight into what life in today's Army is really like. You'll explore:

- The wide range of Army roles and career pathways
- Training, qualifications, and apprenticeship opportunities
- How the Army supports wellbeing, personal development, and long term progression
- Real experiences shared by parents who've supported their young person through the journey

Study Options is the official application support service for students wanting to enrol at Australian and New Zealand universities. The government funded service is FREE for potential applicants. They offer impartial advice about where and how to apply and will provide full assistance with making and submitting your application.

Find all the latest Higher and Degree Apprenticeships in this guide, published three times a year.

The guide features hundreds of vacancies from a wide range of employers across the country. Many of these roles begin later this year, but for pupils planning ahead and wanting to explore future opportunities, it is an excellent source of information.

We are being bombarded with messages about how AI is going to transform employment. These two FREE talks are designed to help pupils understand the changing world of work.
